How do i prepare for a primary teaching interview

Skip to content Pass YOUR interview at the first attempt! Here's the FULL LIST of PRIMARY TEACHER INTERVIEW QUESTIONS: Q1. Tell me about yourself and why you think you'll make a good primary teacher? SUGGESTED ANSWER: "I am an extremely passionate teacher who decided to get into this profession because of the skills and qualities I possess that are a match for the role. I am hard-working, I always put the welfare and education of my pupils at the core of everything I do, and I always work tirelessly to give my pupils the best possible start in life through the education I provide as a Primary Teacher. I will make a good Primary Teacher because I have the ability to build strong relationships with my pupils and their parents; I am kind, patient and caring, and above all, I am totally dedicated to the teaching profession which I feel will be a positive influence on my style of teaching and the results that it brings." Q2. Why have you chosen our school to become a Primary Teacher? SUGGESTED ANSWER "I have chosen your school because of the strong reputation it has within the community and it is also clear, from my research, that you strive to deliver the highest standards of education possible. Everyone I have spoken to about your school have all had nothing but positive comments to say, and on that basis, I feel this school is one where I can continually grow and develop as a primary teacher. There is a huge amount of responsibility that comes with being a primary teacher, and I only want to work within a school that is a match for my own work ethics, standards and values." Q6. What's your style of teaching? Purchase the full package below for just £7.99 to download the answer to this and all of the interview questions featured on this page! Q10. What's your biggest weakness? Purchase the full package below for just £7.99 to download the answer to this and all of the interview questions featured on this page! As a Primary Teacher, you will be responsible for delivering outstanding, fun and engaging lesson plans that enable the pupils to learn and develop whilst achieving the aims and objectives of the educational curriculum. You will be responsible for a large number of key duties and responsibilities that include, but are not limited to, the following: Teaching each area of the primary school education curriculum; Developing and delivering strong lesson plans that allow for engaging and inclusive learning; Motivating pupils with imaginative lessons and classes; Including parents and carers in the development of their child by proving appropriate and constructive feedback; Marking and assessing work in a timely manner to ensure each pupil can progress based on teacher feedback; Organize, facilitate and take part in formal educational school trips and activities; Keeping up to date with primary educational developments and also taking responsibility for your own continuous professional development; Demonstrating a flexible and supportive approach to your teaching duties; Meeting with, and liaising with, educational liaison or welfare officers if required; Keeping accurate records of pupil's development as the term progresses. Developing lesson plans in line with current the educational curriculum. TIP #1 – As a Primary School Teacher, you will need to utilize a unique set of teaching and interpersonal skills to get the most out of your pupils. During the Primary Teacher interview, you will be assessed against your ability to meet the educational curriculum through proper lesson planning and also by using an effective style of teaching. In preparation for your interview, make sure you prepare answers to questions that relate to how you plan to deliver the lessons through fun, engaging and an inclusive style of teaching. TIP #2 – Your Primary Teacher interview will consist of three different type of questions. First, you will be asked motivational questions, such as why you want to become a Primary Teacher, what you can specifically bring to the role, and also questions that are focussed on your specific strengths and weaknesses. Second, you will be asked research-based questions, such as why you want to work for their school and also what you know about the school curriculum. Finally, and perhaps most importantly, you will be asked a series of tough, behavioral type interview questions, It is essential you prepare answers for all three types of interview questions in the build-up to your Primary School Teacher interview. TIP #3 – When responding to the situational/behavioural interview questions, we recommend you use the STAR technique for structuring strong, robust and solid answers. All of the behavioral-type Primary School Teacher interview questions featured on this page have been developed using the STAR method to ensure you give the highest scores possible during your interview. TIP #4 – We can almost guarantee you will be asked an interview question that assesses why you want to work as a Primary Teacher for their particular school or educational establishment. It is very important you give a unique answer to this question that demonstrates you have studied the strengths of the school and also the challenges it faces.
